

Condensate Storage Tank Inspection Various Nuclear Facilities

Client/Owner:

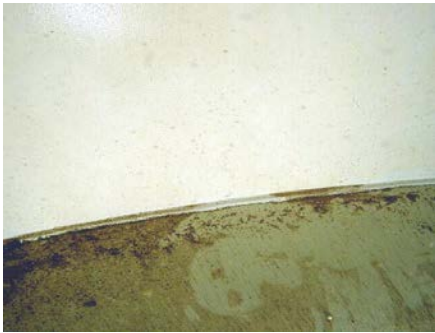

Various Nuclear Facilities

Project Location(s):

Duane Arnold, St. Lucie, Hatch,
Cooper, Pilgrim, Dresden,
Browns Ferry, Oyster Creek

Project Services:

Nuclear Diving Services –
Radiologically Contaminated
Diving Video Inspections &
Condition Assessments

UESI has performed nuclear diving services since 1984. Inspection, condition assessments, cleaning, repairs and retrofits are a services UESI has specialized in various above and underground tanks, including contaminated nuclear safety-related & important to safety classified tank inspections. Inspections meeting various codes of the tank substrate, protective coatings, NDE (UT, AE), video documentation, and qualified coating, welding and/or mechanical repairs are routinely performed including any special client retrofit and/or assessment, test assistance, etc. UESI has performed nuclear facility safety & non-safety related water storage tanks diving services for many commercial facilities and electrical generating facilities including U.S. and Asian Nuclear Power Facilities (BWR/PWR) (Condensate Storage Tanks, Fire Water Storage Tanks, etc.) among the various specialized diving services.

Nuclear Diving Services - Various Nuclear Facility CST Inspection/Repair